You make me wanna
Stumble on pillows, skin both my knees
You make me wanna
Put you inside my mouth so I can't say please

You make me wanna
Soak it in gasoline, stain my new shirt
You make me wanna
Sip Lysol from a cup so clean it hurts

You make me wanna break, break
Something beautiful

You make me wanna
Fold the map improperly, locked in a stall
You make me wanna
Not turn the wipers on when rain starts to fall

You make me wanna
Smoke every cigarette that's ever been made
You make me wanna
Make the rules up as I go so no one can play

You make me wanna break, break
Something beautiful

You make me wanna
Drink from the deepest well, build towers of steel
You make me wanna
Cut down a million trees, spin fiery wheels

You make me wanna
Block out the moonlight and turn off the sun
You make me wanna
Fire off my cannon balls, make the natives run

You make me wanna break, break, break, break
Something beautiful
