it was so very long ago in California desert snow on film was caught a burning bush up many hills a stone was pushed the junky jews, so much to lose the junky jews sing the blues

Corey Feldman took the stand a sequel to the ten commands Red Sea parted in his veins beholding he who has no name
the junky jews, so much to lose

and the world was shining like a jewel but on the surface very cruel so Jesus picked up his guitar and sang about a shooting star sang about a shooting star
