satan is deraated
like an infamous leprous cold and full of wounds into the ferocius blindness of death the end of his domnion has come as soon as it was established the infernal sword destroyed the profane amulet smashed his curse image awaits the flames of hell sacred words say through holy spirit be means of the faith in jesus christ you defeated is proclaimed creator has rose up in his hand, brings the justice your knees, are bow i can hear your confession, feel the pain and the fear that you've spread to all without limits

this is the day
the occult is revelead the bestial empire deposes every lie regurgitaded his dominion will be eternal will never be destroyed for he must reign till hath put all enemies under his feet
