Do you know how I am doing?
Do you know how hard it is for me?
I laugh forcedly, pretending that nothing is wrong
Do you know that, that's how I had to let you go?

The tears that were kept it ever since you left
Are starting to fall again when it shouldn't yet
It shouldn't yet, not until you meet someone else

(Baby say good-bye)
Fine, I'll let you go...
So that you can be in the happiness that I can't give you

(Baby just don't cry)
You can't cry now
You have to happy just as much as
You were sad when you were with me

Your smiling face is disappearing from my mind
It shouldn't yet...
It shouldn't yet, not until you are happy again

(Baby say good-bye)
Fine, I'll let you go
So that you can be in the happiness that I can't give you

(Baby just don't cry)
You can't cry now
You have to forget me now

(Baby say good-bye)
You can't turn back
I don't want to show you my hidden tears
If you see me somehow after a while
You have to look like you are happy and smile
Just like that.
