Narration)

She left

The reason why I love her...

The reason why she said she left...

Today little by little I try to live on

I've lost any reason for doing anything

* Chorus *

Please say you love me before it's over

Please love me before the hate sprouts

Please reach out your hand to me

Before my heart becomes weak

Always and for eternity you are mine

You blew like a breeze on my collar

You were pushed like the waves

To bump and splash like foam against my chest

Rap)

Baby why, why'd you left me now?

Why did you leave me?

Don't say bye bye don't say good bye

My mind is becoming weaker... Oh

See what you did to me when you left

I'm gonna see baby in my dream tonight

Can't you feel me?

Say that you love me?

Please tell you love me tonight...
