From when I decided to live like that

I had to learn to live like an adult

Even if our world is not pure

When I was quite young I tried to act like an adult

To be like a grown-up from my way of thinking

I dreamed of honesty... I'm sick of it

I wished to live only for money

That's how I was here

The sin was my poor thoughts that you could see in me

Finally satisfaction is a thought of you

You probably don't want to care for me

I can't be against it

If I'm removed from you I'll live

But in another world now I can't be caged in

Break it break it, One thing repeated without an end

Break it break it, Where's the world going to?

Break it break it, our dreams are lost

Break it break it, we can make it make it, uh

Break it, everything surrounding me is lies

Break it, respect is the master of everything in this world

We can take it all, we want it

Break it break it, we can make it, make it, uh

?? Repeat

I've wandered into days of sadness and tiredness

In the uncomplicated world my dreams were not pure

I've lost the place where my dreams can be free

But we can't hesitate

Now my heart must make a stand

The future and I'll care for it all

Everything will become one

You must see it in my eyes

Lies, break it

Poverty, break it

Hatred, break it

Pain, break it

I thought too late that my heart would break

I didn't know this was the end

My last hope remains too far away, too late

The master of the world would be us

Yes, we should become one

I can't remove all the lies from this world

I can't move them away from me

I know well, I'm okay

Maybe that's how it is, uh

Until it is not so far away

?? Repeat

I've wandered into days of sadness and tiredness

In the uncomplicated world my dreams were not pure

You turned back around to me when you were tired

I was tired... I went mad... I was ruined...

But in this world I wasn't pure

I won't go down the street that you want

Now I'll fly away searching for myself

Break it break it break it break it break it break it

Break it!
