Rain keeps falling down, I'll leave this northern town I'll run from your mentality and leave you all behind you'll see
There's no more giving up and no more giving in to you Cause I have dreams to realise, it's burning in my heart
you'll see

No more shattered dreams for what I could have been I'll escape reality and shape my destiny you'll see It's my turn to shine to set the world alight
What will be will always be, it's burning in my heart
you'll see

Rock and roll is all I want to do
Rock and roll is all I want to do
Rock and roll is all I want to do
Rock and roll is all I want from you
