Evening Comes Cliff Richard

Sun sets, night falls
Ending of the day, time to slip away into sad dreams Night falls Dreams would all come true if I were with you, my princess

Evening comes what to do, my love, without you, my love
Evening comes gone the dreams of day, they just slip away

The stars have lost their glow, the moon beam seem to know

That somewhere, somehow, I'll find you by God it be right now But right now?

The evening comes with the thoughts it brings, oh a thousand things
Evening comes what to do, my love, without you, my
love

love
My love?
