Got every reason to feel like I do
From the top of my head to the bottom of my shoes
'Cos last night my baby took the weight off my mind
Told me everything was gonna be fine

She said she loved me
I'm never gonna be without the love she promised to give me
'Cos she says every night, hold me tight, forever is right
Love is bright, moon delight, she's outa sight
Give me, give me, give me love your way

She could have resisted my efforts to pry
But she knows how I feel and she's not exactly shy
Though right now I'm lonely I know it won't be long
I can hear the train comin' bringin' lovin' along

She said she loved me
I'm never gonna be without the love she promised to
give me
'Cos she says every night, hold me tight, forever is
Love is bright, moon delight, she's outa sight
Give me, give me, give me love your way

Ooh I used to be so lost and confused
I stumbled through knowing that each door I tried
Was closed before me and knowing that I cried
But still I didn't rest I had to know
What was behind it all I'd come so far
And then I saw her note I couldn't believe she wrote

I couldn't resist it being beside her
Could have held that moment forever in my heart
The moment I saw her was the moment I knew That her love is my life and her light's shining through

She said she loved me
I'm never gonna be without the love she promised to
give me
'Cos she says every night, hold me tight, forever is

Love is bright, moon delight, she's outa sight
Give me, give me, give me love your way

Ooh I used to be so lost and confused
I stumbled through knowing that each door I tried
Was closed before me and knowing that I cried
But still I didn't rest I had to know
What was behind it all I'd come so far
And then I saw her note I couldn't believe she wrote
