"Sometimes love"

Sometimes love is like a loaded gun
Sometimes the best thing to do is run
Sometimes love is like a rolling dice
Sometimes it's a seven, sometimes snake eyes

You know it's not for those afraid to risk it
Play it safe and you're sure to miss it
It's for those of us who love to gamble
So lay your bets down

Sometimes love is like an ace high straight
You could lose your shirt or you could win the day
Sometimes love is like a runaway train
You might survive it but the odds aren't great

If it makes you nervous don't ya sweat it son
Don't ya know the danger's half the fun
So take a deep breath and hold on tight
Just strap yourself in and enjoy the ride
