This ideal life,
Can get you down.
Sometimes I wish,
Wish we could disappear.

The noise and smoke,
The endless chase,
That's not for us.
Let's get away from here.

And I know where to find it.
Where there are rivers,
Where there are valleys,
And a mountain to climb.
Where there are blue birds.
Far away from the hassle.
Where it just doesn't matter,
If a bus runs on time.
The sky is so wide.
Let's go where there are horses to ride.

No grid-locked block.
No fast food light.
No mobile phones.
What's all the hurry for.

Let's find a place,
Where neighbours smile.
A quiet place,
Without a mega store.

And I know where to find it.
Where there are rivers,
Where there are valleys,
And a mountain to climb.
Where there are blue birds.
Far away from the hassle.
Where it just doesn't matter,
If a bus runs on time.
The sky is so wide.
Let's go where there are horses to ride.

This city life.
Mmm
The noise and smoke,
The endless chase,
That's not for us.
Let's get away from here.

And I know where to find it.
Where there are rivers,
Where there are valleys,
And a mountain to climb.
Where there are blue birds.
Far away from the hassle.
Where it just doesn't matter,
If a bus runs on time.
The sky is so wide.
Let's go where there are horses to ride.

The sky is so wide.
Let's go where there are horses to ride.
The sky is so wide.
Let's go where there are horses to ride.

Follow me,
Follow me.

The sky is so wide.
Let's go where there are horses to ride. The sky is so wide. I know where there are horses to ride.
