I've been here before
On the street of hearts
Tryin' to find my way
To be close to you

Takin' careful steps
Makin' some mistakes
Now it's judgement day
But all along I knew

Could this one be magic
Tell me what the rumours say
Now the whispers started
There's no turning back

You move heaven for me
You bring heaven down to earth
When I see the love that's shining in your eyes
You move heaven for me
You bring heaven down to earth
And I'm thankful there's a place in heavens sky
I can hear you breathing
Loving heart and healing hands

On a solo flight
Sent from heavens door
Hear you call my name
When love came first

To be where you are
Like a shooting star
Tryin' to chase the flame
From heaven down to earth

Runnin' in slow motion
Tryin' to find a place to hide
I guess there's no escapin'
Time to face the facts

You move heaven for me
You bring heaven down to earth
When I see the love that's shining in your eyes

You move heaven for me
You bring heaven down to earth
Now I'm flyin' so high.

I've heard that heaven must be missing an angel
Don't care what the story's worth
All I care is that you're here beside me
My angel - here on earth.

Solo

I can hear you breathing
Loving heart and healing hands

You move heaven for me
You bring heaven down to earth
When I see the love that's shining in your eyes
You move heaven for me
You bring heaven down to earth

Repeat 'til fade
