Sal, Sal, don't go and leave me
Oh stay just a little while longer
Sal don't forsake me I'm sure you can't hate me
I don't want to be on my own.

Sal, Sal, don't be so selfish
It's not one of your traits
I don't understand how I came to upset you
But now that I'm in disarray.

You're deceiving me, grieving me, hurtin'
It's someone else I can see in your eyes
Don't forget how you used to believe in me
Can't we give it just one more try/just one more

Sal, Sal, don't separate us
I don't think I could cope
I'd just be survivin' so stop this contrivin'
You're leaving me without hope.

You're deceiving me, grieving me, hurtin'

It's someone else I can see in your eyes
Don't forget how you used to believe in me
Can we give it just one more try/just one more

Try? Sal, don't separate us
I don't think I could cope
I'd just be survivin' so stop this contrivin'
You're leaving me without hope.
