Things I thought I knew don't seem to say much
I thought I knew you, but I don't mean much
Your love's not what you say
You have to think of things to say
Ah but things don't work that way
Baby there's no such thing ah!
Baby there's no such thing ah!

You go out without me and I wonder
And you say it's fair, baby no wonder
You tell me that you think you're mine
That you're coming home tonight.
Ah but that's not quite all right
Baby there's no such thing ah!
Baby there's no such thing ah!

And if you think I just don't care
And if you think I'll always be there.

Things I thought I knew don't seem to say much
I thought I knew you, but I don't mean much
You're asking me to compromise
But I've just begun to get wise
And I'm sick of all your lies
Baby there's no such thing ah!
Baby there's no such thing ah!
Baby there's no such thing ah!
Baby there's no such thing ah!
(and fade).
