i don't get
many things right the first time in fact, i am told that a lot now i know all the wrong turns, the stumbles and falls brought me here and where was i before the day that i first saw your lovely face now i see it everyday
and i know

that i am, i am
i am the luckiest
what if i'd been born
fifty years before you
in a house
on the street where you live maybe i'd be outside as you passed on your bike would i know?
in a wide sea of eyes
i see one pair that i recognize

i love you more than i have ever found a way to say to you next door
there's an old man who lived into his nineties and one day passed away in his sleep and his wife, she stayed for a couple of days and passed away i'm sorry i know that's a strange way to tell you that i know we belong
that i know

i am the luckiest
