You are the one to realize
You are the one to realize
You are the one to realize
You are the one to realize

And it's getting dangerous to see my love away
And it's getting dangerous to wait another day

You are the one to realize
You are the one to realize
You are the one to realize
You are the one to realize

And it's getting dangerous to me to hear you say
And it's getting dangerous to see go straight
And it's killing me enough to keep it all away
And it's killing me enough to live but not to stay

You are the one to realize
You are the one to realize
You are the one to realize
You are the one to realize

hi! get your heart now come and make me see hi! long time running to believe in me

You are the one to realize
(repeat to fade)
