Verse one

Sages have come from far following one bright star
Telling us where thou art from heaven
The king of kings, lord is the word he brings
Praise of the nazarene the angels will sing

Chorus

Jesus born unto mary in bethlehem
The angels herald the pietas in the magi,
Ardent wouldn't tarry to find him,
Enshrine him, glorify him

Verse two

Frankincense, gold and myrrh honor the savior's birth
The highest praise on earth
The angels will sing of him, the trinity begins
Voices will ring, "amen the birth of the king"

Chorus two

Jesus, joseph and mary of israel, isiah's
Miracle augured befell
The coming of christ as the star from the east will tell
The first noel our load emmanuel

Verse three

Sages have come from far following one bright star
Telling us who thou art from heaven
The king of kings, lord is the word he brings
Praise of the nazarene, the angels will sing
Of the birth of the king
The angels will sing of the birth of the king
The angels will sing of the birth of the king
