Master of Illusion: Clinton Gregory

V1

I'm the life of the party, everywhere I go
You can always find me, puttin' on a show Seems I'll always have to prove the hand is quicker than the eye
Walk away my tears, before they see me cry

Chorus

I'm a master of illusions, the magic looks so real
I can make a happy face when its loneliness I feel I'm a master of illusions, I've done these same old tricks for years
But I still can't make her memory disappear

V2

I can tell everybody, I've forgotten you
I can even walk on in, with someone new
I can make a heartache look, like it's not even there
Concealin' all my feelin's with the mask I wear

Repeat Chorus

No I still can't make her memory disappear
