what happened here?
where did you go?
are you hurt,
are you stoned?
what's gone wrong, Anatole?
what's gone wrong?

you're not in sync
you haven't been quite right all your life
and it shows when you smile, Anatole and you never did say goodbye

are feeling sick?
well, you made yourself,
'cause you've been here before you'll just head for the door, Anatole

and what's been erased
has left you in no place,
no trace

and you never did say... we never could figure out why were you over it all,
or just too high?
'cause you never did say...

what's gone wrong, Anatole?
what's gone wrong, Anatole?
what's gone wrong, Anatole?
what's gone wrong, Anatole?
