Norina

Norina, your man is a ghost and lives with a war in his soul oh, suffers from lifetimes before oh, Norina, let the next one be gold

Norina, they're killing me [?] I put a gun to the head of the man who stole the life I needed oh, I needed
Norina, I hope it don't burn

Norina, you won't be alone as soon as this rope breaks my neck into pieces oh, I mean it I'm cursed to the bone, but in pieces Norina, I'll carry on look at my eyes the satellites beaming back messages from the other side yeah, spare me my life, spare me my life,

spare me my life,
my life

Norina, your love isn't lost I swore as you fell to your knees for the life of a man whose soul's been cheated oh, Norina,
Norina I hope it don't burn
