goodbye street light goodnight i'm sure that i'll be fine cause daylight is breaking and my head is spinning me stumblin home winter blues sometimes i know i am wrong and sometimes i know i am right and lately i'm thinking these streets are taking me

out of line
incomplete
in between waking up and going to sleep

wasting time in between the morning light and where i want to be but it takes time

yours and mine

i'm sure i'll be fine i called from a pay phone you were still sleeping daylight is breaking
