[destinee] Where have all the angels gone i've been listening for them when will they come around i see drakness every day but with some help from above things are gonna change they never stay the same.

[all]Angels can you hear me calling. Angels can you stop the rain from falling i know that your watching watching over me and angels I ,I believe.

[ariel]there been things i can't eplain I found my prayers get answered almost instanly what about all of those signs I've been following them They lead my life they guide me towards a light.

[chours]

[paris]maybe the people that we know maybe they'rer still with us even when they're gone oh I like to think that hevaen is a place on earth oh i like to think that everyone above is taking turns watching me.

[all]Angels can you hear me calling angels can you stop the rain from falling i know that you watching,watching over me and angels I,I believe
