

Clit 45 "Convenient Or Vicious"

Visit "Convenient Or Vicious" on MotoLyrics.com

Ramble this world with your incense, who are you trying to fool?

No one is worth that dwell don't you know your just a tool?

[Chorus:]

Convenient or vicious you determine what you choose
But in the end it doesn't matter because you won't win or lose

Close your mouth and open your eyes
Can't you hear the thousand cries?
So afraid of what's out there
Lies, lies, lies no one cares

Fight back and close no doors
You must retain what is yours
Because it won't shift and it won't excel
Maybe we're just all in hell
