Smash the set, fuck what's next cause this reruns been one for a while
B-O-R-E-D got two fingers up your ass like it's going outta style

What's it gonna take to set us off?
Cause I'm still lost, and at what cost?
This shows went way too long, is this the swan song?

All the guitars want to be next in line
But it's still bullshit fucking waste of time on Chatterbox punk rock, so cut the fucking talk Speaking only in reality cause I refuse to fucking be Just another casualty, because the truth will set you free

What's it gonna take to set us off?
Cause I'm still lost, suck dick till you cough I'd rather light this match, burn it down and don't look back

What's it gonna take?
Question, seek and destroy
