There was something strange
In my sensations
Incredibly new and incredibly sweet
I knew myself to be tenfold more evil
This intoxicated me like wine
Here was a realm you have never known
You will be transported to paradise
The transformation begins
The chemistry of love
The vapours of hate
Soul turned inside out
The alchemy of sex
The apparatus of blood
We have no more solid core
Lycanthropy unfolds
Dark Aegis
New boundaries broken
