Through all the dreams of the night
I came for you
In this room where I'll awake
To find your face
Inside this burning heart I know
This time it's you
Chance is stranger
I wait for you
Through all the endless Dreams of time
I came for you
Through all the stations of the past
I came for you
Through all the endless nights
I came for you
Through all the visions of the past
I came for you
Through all the endless nights
I came for you
In this mirror time fades slowly
I see your face
In this velvet realm I feel your touch
An exchange of love
We are bound together
Our fate is love
We are bound together
Our fate is love
Through all these moments
I thought of you
Through all these endless nights
I move for you
Through hearts of fire
I came for you
Through all the endless nights
I cared for you
