Don't worry, no one will know
In this mansion I'm all alone
Want to sit with you at the window
Laugh and understand the view

But first I've got to find what's the quest
No no a violently pretty face
I'm jostled and bumped I may be slow
But I'm terrified of your violently pretty face

And I each day I'm sealed to the fate that I know
I'm gonna be struck before we reach the gate
I'm jostled and bumped and may be slow
But I'm terrified of your violently pretty face
