If you're unsure of your question
There's no point of even crying

Don't try to walk away
Don't try to turn around
Cause I've seen better days without you

Don't try to walk away
Cause I've seen better days without you
You will know who is stronger
In the end I was much smarter
Lost myself only to find my love for you was only blind
Was only
