[Gelo]

Only takes about a minute then I'm in it again Always filling up a vega so my day can begin
And end without a hassle over verbal confrontation Instead I'm taking to the head the herbal medication Heard that you were facing a sticky situation Let this chronic meditation help to heal the player hation
Just be patient while I lace ya, place ya, on a path
To the things you've never had, hot steam bubble bath Got rings full of diamonds, or testaments to my time And true indeed forever grinding but seeming I'm better shining Bet I'm winning when I'm spinning but nothing but them nude models
Them big faces, I replace this with a few bottles To get me tipsy and keep me buzzing, you thought I wasn't I make the hits to bump your relative and all your cousins
And keep them popping till the morning time
Still chill like a villain, steadily burning mine

[Chorus x2: Gelo]

Let the smoke hit the ceiling all the way from the ground
Got some girls and my homies and we're twisting a pound Alize and courvoisier mixing around
And regardless either way it's about to go down

[Lil' Rob]

Well I don't fuck with alize or courvoisier Just give me a twelve pack of Corona and some yerba and I'm on my way
Who's got the yesca, Gelo's got the bomb shit Spend some days in a haze, come out in a dizzy daze Marijuana paradise, there's nothing quite as nice My anesthetic, I'm high chiggy check it Jump in the Caddy, hit the switch I might wreck it Cuz it's too quick when it hits, snaps in a millisecond

I don't wanna get arrested I just wanna get down But I'm so fucked up when I leave I'm gonna end up downtown
I already swerve as it is, I hit the curb as it is I'm like a magnet to the jura, I don't know what it is
Is it cuz I'm pelon, or cuz I'm stoned to the bone Behind the wheel of a 'Lac, you see the sparks from the back
And I keep it hopping till the morning time
And still chill like a villain, steadily burning mine

[Chorus x2]

[Gelo]

Pager blowing up, got these mamis on a mission Begging me to call them back just to hear their propositions
How they get me in the sack, how they're bending these positions
How I won't know what I'm missing till that full body licking
Always thinking to my player gear, ain't no Captain Save A here
Still I keep a gang of them or wishing they were laying near Staying clear of rats and others that wanna trap
A brother like me, yo homie pay apology be Easily I be strutting right by Half shutting my eyes but it ain't nothing, I'm high I'm trying to chill like a real man, baby can you feel that Take me to the pad with the bed and the mus-ac
Then we'll snack on the fruits of love All night in the tub, anything you're thinking of First the rubbing then the touching then the jumping up on you
You got a secret, I can keep it, so you're calling your homey
It's going down

[Chorus x2]
