Oh, you see now
This is a little story about this little word we call 'love'

You've got 'em wrapped around your finger
You're constantly changing
An ever impressive mind
You better watch the way
You treat 'em little baby
'Cause you might make him lose his mind

I told her twice
You better watch twice
Because he's walking for the door
And never thinkin' twice now
So you better bat your eyes
And put a little shake in them hips
No la la love's
Gonna' keep him alive

Love's just a game
That two people play
No matter who you think wins
The outcomes always the same
Before I pick up the strength to leave
With all the things that you said
But never ever do
This la la love
I'm trying hard to understand
(To understand)
This love
This game called love

Now you think you got him figured
Yeah, I bet you think you got him all figured out
She said to
Go on and get to steppin'
Prince charming
If you think that your one of a kind
She told me twice
I think she told me twice
Your pretty words sting my ears
Like bad advice

Now you think I will abide
To boy trying to be like a man?
No la la love's
Gonna keep him alive

So I look in those eyes
Oh, those firey
Devil eyes and I

(La la love, la la love, la la la la la la love)

Love's just a game
That two people play
Who you think wins
The out comes always the same
Before I pick up my strength to leave
With all the things that you said
But never ever do
This la la love
This love

Oh, this little pretty thing
Oh, it's dangerous
They call it 'love'

It's funny how this little word called 'love'
Could turn out to be so
Dangerous

Love's just a game
That two people play
Who you think wins
With all the things that you said
But never ever do
This la la love
I'm trying hard to understand
This love

Oh, this pretty pretty thing we call 'love'

C2C
We back at it baby
Oh, ah
For the love
For the pain

For the ways I wished you'd change
For the fact I never will
Cut back these feelings that I feel
For the good times
And the bad times
Everything else in between
Let's give a toast to life lessons
Growing up, we'll steal those dreams
For those radio plays
And those TV Spots
We'll look back to see how small
Then how big we got
To never ever giving up
Staying humble, rise above
These pretty little dangers
That we call love
