My brain hurts I'm suffering from a pure overload I need some time to get away Before my thoughts take over me I need some time to reminisce with a vacant mind, so tension free Help me find away to; Cure myself, I'm falling off the edge; Disarm myself, I'm falling off the edge; Shout out loud, I'm falling off the edge; Hold on tight, I'm falling off the edge Oh please no, this isn't the way I wanted it I can feel my veins pulsating in my head The walls are slowly caving in, dilapidated in a sense, slipping in and out of this state of disrepair The fix comes knocking at my door and I am not around Missed opportunity to cry Its like I have no mouth and I must scream in time to cure myself...
I'm falling off the edge
