A super villain in a trench coat, posing as a hero, tries to sell us a anti-revolutionary dream Have you ever taken the time to find your favorite star? Have you ever wondered who you really are? Have you ever seen through all of my shit? Seized truth and fully contemplated it? THIS ONE IS FOR THE ONES OUT THERE WHO TAKE THE TIME TO CARE This one's for the ones that give a fuck and think about existence, humyn reason, and who dare to suck it in and question what we trust Have you ever wanted to join in the crusade? Have you ever re-directed wrongful blame? Have you ever seen through all my shit? Seized truth and fully contemplated it A revolutionary dream
