That last evening she said :
Now I'm tired
Cannot take it anymore
And I'm feeling blue
I don't know why
I am sitting
Staring blindly at the wall
Still I'm feeling blue
I don't know why
Leave me alone
Feeling dizzy
Cannot stand another question
Have enough of you
I don't know why
Feeling restless
And I cannot sleep at night
Have enough of you
I need more time
Leave me alone
Leave me alone and go
Leave me alone
And when I am alone
I may find out
If I really want you
If I love you
Leave me alone - she said
