In the middle of the car crash,
You turned to me and said:
Living so pretty, let's do it again.
For all the things we want to do
For all the things we want to do
I'm no, no, no...

In the middle of the car crash
He told me he loved me
With a keychain wedding ring,
What you say we get married?
There's so much more we want to do
There's so much more we want to do
I'm no...

At seventy miles per hour we rolled up together
Let's sleep in this ditch tonight and forever
You're everything I could want to do
There's nothing more I could want to do but be with you
