Orville and Wilbur
cold cut
the anchor's from their ankles, carving
propellers from whale fins in the back of a bicycle shop...
and thus begins the tale of the thumb trigger cloud kill.

At last the Wright's reinvented
the horse with wings,
another invention
only fit for a mannequin.

Early time machine's

will have tended to leave you left screaming
on a dinosaur's dish.

In da Vinci's 'Bike Accident',
an outerspace whodunit?
monkeys play Magellan
as the next ex-Edison,
standing out
in the crowd
with a unicycle.

Physics of a unicycle...
twice the remarkable.
