Straight out of nowhere
Like a thief in the night
You stole my heart
Life was so easy
I thought I was getting by
I was wrong from the start
How was I to know that
The way I was living
Would never be the same
Since I felt what you are giving
(Chorus)
Take me down (We are deeper than water)
Take me down (We are thicker than blood)
Take me down to a ground
Where my feet won't touch down
Won't you take me down
Take me down, take me down
How did I manage
To get through those years
Without you around
Babe where we're going
Well it's halfway to heaven
This love that we've found
I'm never going back
To the way I was living
It would never be the same
Once I felt what you are giving
(Chorus)
I stand on an edge
Between here and forever
With my heart in my hand
And I believe that the power
Of love between lovers
Is making me understand
Straight out of nowhere
Like a thief in the night
You stole my heart
When you kissed me
(Chorus)
