"You are the reason"

I was amazed as I looked in your eyes
They spoke of a world on a natural high
It felt so appealing, the sound of your voice
I knew that I had no choice

I heard it said that life has it's way to make you wake up on a beautiful day
You feel that you've only been taking it in
From now on I know were I've been

You are the reason
You are the one
It makes me give in to what I've become
Everything ever said about love
You made it come true and all of the above

I was alone, alone for too long
Dreamin' of love, never knowing what was wrong
You came along, you showed me the road
And I never wanna let go

You are the reason
You are the one
It makes me give in to what I've become
Everything ever said about love
You made it come true and all of the above

I wanna dream my life away
Wondering wild
Come what may
See you for who you are Baby let's wish on a star

You are the reason
You are the one
It makes me give in to what I've become
Everything ever said about love
You made it come true and all of the above
You are the reason
You are the one

It makes me give in to what Iâ€™ve become
Everything ever said about love
You made it come true and all of the above
All of the above
