

The Benjamins

"Crimson Glow"

Visit "Crimson Glow" on MotoLyrics.com

Dead ceilin's what I guess he stared at when he heard
From Reasons of the depth of wildly whispered words
And time beats from the mornin? surrounded
And though I can make it better... I'll catch you if you fall
And I want to thank you for living... solitude
And though I never told you... how I felt... I'm doin it now... crimson glow
I know I can do anything to change it
Your standin on the brink of destiny
She's cryin cause of that she wanted is gone
And if it don't get better you know who you can call
And I want to thank you for living... solitude
And though I never told you how I felt... I'm doin it now
Crimson glow
And I want to thank you for livin... solitude
And though I never told you how I felt... I'm doin it now
Crimson glow

Visit The Benjamins page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.