Take away the pride
And leave your old ideas
Cause you won't use them

Stand up straight for those
Who keep you clean
Cause they're the ones who need you

I'll go on my own here
Still there's too much undone

Cold hearts
It's leaving time
It takes too much from you
to make it right
Cold hearts
Drift away
When distance grows too big
We'll have to part

Step into the line
You said that you would hate
That we'd refuse to

With your eyes closed
You will take advice
From those who'll only use you

I'll go on my own here
Still there's too much undone

Cold hearts
It's leaving time
It takes too much from you
to make it right
Cold hearts
Drift away
When distance grows too big
We'll have to part
