I wasn't much of a fight
(I'm sorry)
Some temptations I must resist
(There's pride to keep and words to make you weep)

If I miss what you get
And time is on your side
You may win
And here's a tired mind

With all this drama
There's something to loose
What we're ending
We don't choose
In our drama
There's not much more
It's coming to an end for sure

I wasn't much of a fight
(I'm sorry)
I can't go on though you may persist)
(To change my words ignore the things you've missed)

If I miss what you get
And time is on your side
Then you're right
I'm on the loser side

With all this drama
There's something to loose
What we're ending
We don't choose
In our drama
There's not much more
It's coming to an end for sure
