i thought i'd love you till the end well at least as a friend you know i liked you from the start and now we have to part i went in circles in the park way past it got dark just a way to clear my mind and to leave the past behind

chorus
be whatever you want to be
do what you please
if you don't want to stay weak

i still do need you but there's no love what am i supposed to do about me and about you i'm lost without you

(like me)
