karen's got a house now somewhere by the water

it's quiet and dark but she's happy so i can only wish her well

i'm still a dreamer
stuck with myself all the time can i go now

don't make me beg
make me believe
it's no mistake
when i see
nothing belongs
to me now

take me out and show me a future that sparkles and shines i want to leave now

don't make me beg
make me believe
it's no mistake
nothing belongs
to me now
