you're making fun
of everything i say
it's ok
i want to go where you go
at the same time

what she knows
is nothing new
but quite superior
so come on over
and let me hear it now
where she goes
is no place new
but i'm not in there
so take me there
and let me have it all
i want it all

you're keeping of time but who is keeping track of you your poets get you nowhere and you know that

is nothing new
so come on over
where she goes
is no place new
so take me there
i want it all

if you don't know
when you're mistaken
then you won't understand as days are passing
we are wasting our time

is nothing new
so come on over
where she goes
is no place new
