if you're worth the trouble if you're worth the pain we could try again
make a brand new start

i've got a million reasons not to trust in you when you tell me lies i still believe it's true

if you want it all
and i don't want anything
then this is all in vain
if you want it all
and i want a few parts
you can't have my heart

say a prayer for my soul
something from your heart

all the joy i felt then and the love i feel keeps me hanging on i know it's been too long

so you lose your will to try and you stop asking why and all the dreams you had where are they now
they were lost
somewhere along the way
