teenage love
crushing every heart
the young can go far
then they take it all
i want to go there

a boy at 15
shy and clumsy
he feels it all
a girl at 16
who'll drop out of school soon
this is her time

teenage dreams
everyone's a star
some may go far
others fall so hard
i want to be them

a boy at 15
shy and clumsy
a girl at 16
who'll drop out of school soon
this is her time

fall every season
in love without reason
it's a teenage life
hate every teacher
listen to no one
it's a teenage life

a boy at 15
shy and clumsy
a girl at 16
who'll drop out of school soon
this is her time
