I may not got a lot of money
But I got self-esteem
And in the golden age of travel
That's really all you need
I know I'm ugly, honey
But look where I'm coming from
I got a pony down state
And that pony born to run

Book, saddle and go,
Hey, that's the name of the game
Book, saddle and go
Canned heat, that's the name of the game

They call me the robber,
Highwayman
Don't wanna hurt nobody
Just doing what I can
The galley after hours
Man the captain just won't listen
"If you don't turn this boat around,
I'm gonna kick the damn doors in"

Book, saddle and go,
Hey, that's the name of the game
Book, saddle and go
Canned heat, that's the name of the game

Pinkerton man, murdering bastard
I'm gonna get even, get even with you
Get even with you

Pinkerton man, murdering bastard
I'm gonna get even, get even with you
Get even with you

You can take that my violin
And play it all you please
For at this time tomorrow
Well it'll be of no use to me
I know they're gonna hang me

Tomorrow Iâ€™ll be dead
Though I never even harmed a hair
On anybodyâ€™s head.

Book, saddle and go,
Hey, thatâ€™s the name of the game
Book, saddle and go
Canned heat, thatâ€™s the name of the game

Pinkerton man, murdering bastard
Iâ€™m gonna get even, get even with you
Get even with you

Pinkerton man, you murdering bastard
Iâ€™m gonna get even, get even with you
Get even with you

Pinkerton man, murdering bastard
Iâ€™m gonna get even, get even with you
Get even with you
