Two [Incomprehensible] doors
[Incomprehensible]
Imported [Incomprehensible]
Victorian [Incomprehensible]

They go between
Bucolic scenes
Machiavelli
And all the lesser name schemes

Greyhounds and rabbits
Go round and round
But everybody scatters
When the Hindenburg goes down

Robber Baroness-es
Carpet baggers-ese
But honestly speakin', now
We all got the same disease

I'm afraid the police canceled
The servants never showed
All the world's [Incomprehensible]
On this [Incomprehensible] note

Force gettin' ready
Man, we get too much
All the world suffers
The Wookie's wicked clutch

The theocrats
With cricket bats
Has alot of, love to give ya
Never take it back

A graver danger
You bounce and rape her
Medula oblongata go
I'll see you all later

One fist is draggin'
One leg behind

And when the trap is sprung
The warrior loses his mind

Assassins trippin'
High on Hashesh
But honestly speakin', now
We all need the same relief

One day or another, kid
Our world will be gone
One day or another, kid
Our death will be done

One day or another, kid
Our world will be gone
One day or another, kid
Our death will be done

General borders
You have your orders
Invisible free Masonry
And coming mortars

The fly is landing
And are demanding
Keep on firing until
The last man standing

Stock cars and habits
When the stock market goes down

Robber Baronesses

I'm afraid the husband canceled
The gang never showed
And all the [Incomprehensible]
On this [Incomprehensible] note

Force gettin' ready
