I'm sorry, but red's my color now Guess you got to me somehow.
'This mistake has broken me' she said she said..

'Just shut your mouth and take the blame and paint your face with the shame I know because I know'

Take these eyes and bury me
so that I can't see your face and when you die, I won't cry

I've been here before, flesh is warm but I've grown cold.
State your claim into my veins and scrape my face in your hands and bend me to the floor.

Take these eyes and bury me
so that I can't see your face
and when you die, I can't cry

I can't justify, your eyes, your eyes
justify, your eyes, your eyes
justify, your eyes, your eyes
justify, your eyes, your eyes

Take these eyes and bury me
so that I can't see your face
and when you die I can't cry

I can't cry
I can't cry
I can't cry
I can't cry
