I'm so quiet today
I don't feel like me
Someone took your smile away
Now it's gone and I can't see

No one loves til it's gone
I'm the one who likes change
But I feel taken by surprise
Let me rewind the things I say
That make it rain inside your eyes

I keep missing you
But my heart knows it's through
Don't wake up I'm here
To keep you from the storm

I'll soak up your fear
And keep your body warm
I keep missing you
But my heart knows it's through

Don't wake up I'm here
To keep you from the storm

I'll soak up your fear
And keep your body warm

I keep missing you
But my heart knows it's through

Nothing to hold onto
My heart knows its through
