Verse 1:

you know that I dont like your smile, the one that you always give to him, for such a soft spoken one, you give me the broken one, when you give that smile to him,

Chorus:

and everyday you find me a way to get burned,
and everynite time is my time to get love returned, round and round and round I go,
how could you possibly know,
Its not fair, its not fair,
are you there?

Verse 2:

you know that i dont like your eyes, their 1000 pounds make me sink, whenever your ardency shows, I start to take off my clothes, just because of your wink.

Chorus:

and everyday you find me a way to get burned,
and everynite time is my time to get love returned,
round and round i go,
how could you possibly know,
Its not fair, its not fair,
are you there?

Outro:

what can i say,
when things dont go my way, I thought everything was to good to be true, and you, I gotta get it all off my back, but most of its up in my head, at least I'll have my favorite pavement record when i'm dead,
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah.
